For FAFSA verification purposes, I have attached one of the following items to document successful completion of high school or the equivalent of a high school diploma:

☐ High School Diploma - Acceptable documentation includes:
(a) A copy of the applicant’s high school diploma; or
(b) A copy of the applicant’s final high school transcript that shows the date when the applicant completed secondary school education.

Note: In cases where a copy of an applicant’s high school diploma or final high school transcript is unavailable, e.g., the school is closed or located in a foreign country and the records are not available, an institution may accept alternative documentation to verify the applicant’s high school completion status such as Secondary School Leaving Certificate from the student’s national education ministry.

☐ Recognized Equivalent of a High School Diploma - Acceptable documentation includes:
(a) General Educational Development (GED) Certificate;
(b) A State certificate received by a student after the student has passed a State-authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma;
(c) An academic transcript of a student who has successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree; or
(d) For a person who is seeking enrollment in an educational program that leads to at least an associate degree or its equivalent and has not completed high school but has excelled academically in high school, documentation from the high school that the student excelled academically in high school and documentation from the postsecondary institution that the student has met the formalized, written policies of the postsecondary institution for admitting such students.

☐ Homeschool - Acceptable documentation includes:
(a) A transcript or the equivalent, signed by the parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses completed by the applicant and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education; or
