

Academic Distinction Scholarship

Value

Your scholarship covers the resident portion of tuition for up to 18 hours of tuition per semester for a maximum of two semesters. The resident portion of the tuition translates into a benefit of approximately $7,000 per academic year, for 15 course hours. It will not cover fees.

Restrictions

Your scholarship is non-renewable

This scholarship is considered a tuition waiver. Students may receive only one University of Utah tuition waiver scholarship. If a student is awarded more than one such scholarship, he or she must select only one. Students may receive multiple scholarships, provided that no more than one is a tuition waiver.

Next Steps

- If you have not set up your Campus Information Services (CIS) account, visit cis.utah.edu as soon as possible. Log in with your University ID (found in your admissions letter) and your birthdate in MMDDYY format as your password. You can change your password once you log in. Be sure to activate your University e-mail account (UMail) in CIS. All official university communication will be sent to your UMail account.
- Confirm your intent to enroll, pay the $300 non-refundable enrollment deposit, and accept your scholarship offer by May 1, 2018. Visit admissions.utah.edu/confirm and click the Confirm Intent to Enroll Now button. Log in with your University ID (uNID) and CIS password. Confirm your intent to enroll with the Office of Admissions, select Accept and Submit to accept your scholarship and pay the $300 enrollment deposit or request an extension.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.gov by the February 1, 2018 Priority Date. By completing the FAFSA and your financial aid file by the priority date, you will be considered for the maximum amount in aid programs, including need-based scholarships and grants. Students can complete the FAFSA after the priority date and receive financial aid.

Additional Information

Please be aware that to receive this award, you must enroll as a full-time student each semester. To be considered full-time, it is required that you register for 12 or more credit hours. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of your scholarship.

Certification

Students who receive a scholarship, fellowship, or other financial aid administered by the University of Utah are required by state law to certify that they are eligible to receive the scholarship as a U.S. citizen or a citizen of another country who is lawfully present in the U.S. If students do not know whether they are in the U.S. lawfully, they should seek the advice of an immigration attorney before accepting this award.

Residency

Students may qualify for residency reclassification while receiving this scholarship. Visit admissions.utah.edu/apply/residency for more information.

Deferral and Leave of Absence

Newly accepted freshmen who wish to defer their start date to a later semester and to hold their scholarship may apply for an admission deferment through the Office of Admissions. For more information about how to apply for a deferment, visit: admissions.utah.edu/apply/deferment. Scholarship recipients considering a deferment must confirm their intent to enroll and accept their scholarship by May 1, 2018. Students have up until the first day of classes (August 20, 2018) to apply for a deferment.

The University Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid (UOSFA) will also, in extenuating circumstances, allow a student to take a leave of absence from a scholarship once he or she is a continuing student. For questions regarding eligibility for either deferral or leave of absence, please contact the UOSFA.

Contact Information

For questions or concerns, please contact the UOSFA at (801) 581-6211 or scholarship@sa.utah.edu.
